DR. VAN DYKE AT THE COLLEGE

Distinguished Author Lectures
To-Morrow and Tuesday Evening.

The coming of Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D. D., LL. D., of Princeton, to this city to deliver the spring course of the Thomas endowment lectures is an event of much importance and interest to the literary, young and cultivated people of Richmond. Dr. Van Dyke lectures to-morrow and Tuesday evenings. His theme is "Some Relations of Art and Life." He will discuss the subject under the following subdivisions: Monday evening, "The Relation of Art to Life"; Tuesday evening, "The Relation of Life to Art." Dr. Van Dyke is a pleasing speaker. His last course of lectures was delivered at the Brooklyn Institute, where he spoke on "English Poetry in the Nineteenth Century." The papers say that the hall was crowded to the limit of seating capacity, and it was the most successful series of lectures ever delivered in Brooklyn.

Rev. W. E. Hatcher, D. D., left the city Friday for Louisville, where he went to deliver the course of lectures at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. His general topic will be "The Relation of the Pastor to the Sunday-School." There will be five lectures in the course.

Messrs. W. P. Clark and R. A. McFarland have been selected by the College Y. M. C. A. as delegates to the State Convention in Staunton. Messrs. W. B. C. and J. J. Johnson and R. P. Styles will go to Toronto to attend the International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement.

A series of meetings will begin at the college on Monday, February 24th. A prominent divine will conduct them. President Boatwright will give his second reception to the students next Friday evening in the Jeter and Thomas halls.

A very valuable relic has just arrived at the college, which has been placed in the museum. It is a table made in the colonial days. It was owned by Dr. Clontarf.

President Boatwright and Hon. J. Taylor Elliston express the belief that this Congress will award the college claim of $25,000.

A Fine Publication.

The magazine formerly known as "The Families" has undoubtedly entered upon a new and prosperous career. The first number of the new "The Echo" was published last week. The first number of the new "The Echo" was published last week. The first number of the new "The Echo" was published last week.

Westmore and Cub.

The regular annual meeting of the Westmoreland Club will be held at the clubrooms, corner Sixth and Grace Streets, to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock.

Nothing out of the regular order is expected to come up and beyond the election of officers and the hearing of committee reports, little will be done.

Harvard Honors Him.

W. Russell Bowie, of Richmond, one of the leading members of the Harvard University class of 1904 has been chosen corresponding secretary of the Harvard

Christian Association.
Mr. Bowie is a grandson of the late Capt. Walter Bowie, so highly esteemed here.

FOR THE PLAINTIFF.

Verdict in the Suits of Chalkley vs. American Hide and Leather Company.

As is usually the case of Saturday, the city courts transacted little business yesterday. Nothing of public interest was done in any of the courts save the City Circuit.

In the two suits pending, those of B. D. Chalkley & Co. vs. The American Hide and Leather Company, and which have been on trial for three or four days, the jury yesterday brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in each case. The cases were suits in assumpsit for damages for failure on part of the defendants to comply with its purchase of hides, and in the one case the verdict was for $2,000, the whole amount of damages laid in the declaration, and in the other case it was for $13,235, the whole amount of the plaintiff asked for in his statement of damages.

PROF. J. L. JARMAN.
(New superintendent of the State Female Normal School.)

Professor J. L. Jarman, recently elected superintendent of the State Female Normal School, at Farmville, to succeed Dr. Robert Fraser, who recently resigned, took active charge of the school February 1st.

Professor Jarman is only thirty-four years old, but is recognized as one of the more energetic, progressive and best equipped educators in all Virginia.

He is a University of Virginia man, taught for a time at the Miller School and made such impression as professor of natural science at Emory and Henry College that he was recognized as being the person to head a large institution, and those who knew his work at Emory and Henry were quick to recommend him for the place, and he was elected over several of the most eminent teachers in the State.

Professor Jarman is of an eminently practical turn of mind and energy, and is conscientious and scrupulous in every undertaking. He is not only a competent and efficient teacher in the department of natural sciences, but exerts an influence for good in all the life and work of the college. He is young, modest, growing and enthusiastic, thoroughly upright and best of all, an aggressive Christian. He is a fine disciplinarian and a born teacher. Though in Farmville but a short time, he has made many friends.

NEWS IN THE COUNTY.

Consable Samuel Getting Better—Commissioners Appointed.

The friends of Consable T. H. Samuel are delighted at the news that he is greatly improved in health and will probably be out again soon. The reports received at the courthouse during the past few days were alarming to a degree, and much concern was felt. On Friday, however, the Consable was able to sit up a little, and appeared to be on the high road to recovery.

Because of the bad weather the formation of a Teachers' Association in Henrico county had to be postponed again yesterday. Another meeting will be held on the first Saturday of March.

Quite a number of the teachers were present at the courthouse yesterday morning. A highly interesting address was delivered by Mr. D. L. Pulliam, superintendent of the Manchester schools.

In the County Court of Henrico yesterday Messrs. R. L. Wilson, K. H. Cornwell, and John T. Hughes were appointed to meet with commissioners from the County Court of Charles City and decide with reference to the Turkey Island bridge, which connects the two counties. The bridge is in bad repair and the commissioners will decide if there is any further use for it. If not, the order that it be taken down. Should the bridge, however, be deemed a necessity, repairs will be ordered.

The County Court adjourned yesterday for the term.

Constable T. J. Franklin has recently lost or had stolen from him a white beagle hound, which he valued highly.

COUNCIL TO MEET.

Will Act On the Appropriation of $500 for Special Commitment.

On Monday evening a called meeting of the Common Council will be held for the purpose of considering the appropriation of $500 for the prosecution of the work of the special committee on fire losses. The Board of Aldermen at its last meeting passed the resolution.

At 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon the Street Committee will meet in regular session. It is quite probable that at this meeting the proposed franchise of the Richmond Telephone Company will be considered. At the last meeting of the committee the City Attorney and the City Engineer were instructed to examine the proposed franchise and report back to the committee.

The Committee on Light will also meet at 6 o'clock to-morrow.

On Tuesday night an open meeting of the Finance Committee will be held in the Council Chamber to hear from city departments that have not put in their lists of "wants" for the coming budget. All departments except those of Water and Fire will be heard at this meeting. The committee will give these two departments a special hearing, but not until after the special committee on fire losses has made its report and recommendations.

On Wednesday night the Annexation Committee will probably meet in session to hear citizens for and against the extension of the city limits.

The Carnegie Library Board will meet early in the week for organization. A president and secretary is to be chosen.

HER ARM BROKEN.

Mrs. Charles H. Ingram Falls While Walking in Capitol Square.

Mrs. Charles H. Ingram, wife of Colonel Ingram, revenue agent, fell yesterday morning while coming through the Capitol Square and broke her arm. The snow and ice on the walks caused her to slip, and in her effort to break herself, the arm was caught beneath her body and broken just above the wrist. She was assisted to Colonel Ingram's office in the Custom House by gentlemen who were passing, and there attended by Dr. Station. The bone was found to be broken and Dr. Station, the family physician, was called in and after resetting the bone directed that Mrs. Ingram be taken to her home, No. 1195 East Clay Street. Last night she was resting quite comfortably.

VIRGINIA AHEAD.

She Leads Other States in the Cultivation of Flowers.

Mr. M. A. Whitly, florist, has received from Hon. John Lamb the commercial horticulture statistics from the United States census of 1900. Mr. Whitly has made the following comparisons for this State: The total number of establishments in the United States is 6,159 with sales of $18,375,420. Virginia makes a good record, ranking twenty-fifth among fifty States, showing fifty-five establishments and sales of $196,500. Richmond or Henrico county leads the State with fourteen establishments, occupying 124 acres of ground and sales of $77,736, which is considerably more than one-third of the entire value of the State's products.

Louisa county, the violet district, ranks second, with twenty establishments, 61 quarter acres of land and sales $18,651. This leaves Norfolk third with four establishments, 22 quarter acres of land, and sales of $15,250. The combined sales of these three counties almost aggregate two-thirds of the entire State's showing.

Virginia leads her sister southern cities in floriculture, and is ahead of Georgia some $24,000, while Richmond leads Atlanta about $15,000.

TOBACCO AT CARTERSVILLE.

Oysters Served in Bowl of Solid Ice.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

CARTERSVILLE, VA., Feb. 15.—The season for buying tobacco is now about over, though there are several large crops in the neighborhood as yet unsold. All is now hustle and move at the stores of Mr. Wm. Rhodes and Mr. J. L. Rhodes. The securing of hands was not such a difficult matter as was expected, and each factory has about the required number. The first part of the week was spent in repairing the old boilers and getting ready for work. Now the work of sorting, steaming and prizing is carried on in earnest, and numbers of hogheads of tobacco are being hauled to the depot for shipment.

Trenholm, Powhatan county, was the rendezvous for many young ladies and gentlemen of that neighborhood last night, when all were invited to enjoy a "game and oyster supper," given by the young gentlemen of that place. Games prepared in the usual tempting styles, were elegantly served amid the merry jest of those gathered around the well-laden board.

Raw oysters were served in unique style from a bowl of solid ice.

South Boston Well Lighted.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., Feb. 15.—The new electric light and power company, which has harnessed the water power in Dan River at this place, has turned on its current, and after being in total darkness for several weeks, South Boston can now claim one of the best systems of lighting in the State. For the first time she has an abundance of street lights burning at night. The company, a private enterprise operated by capitalists, and in addition to furnishing lights, offers to supply power to manufacturing establishments at a very low rate.

Incendiaries Caught.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

JACKSON, N. C., Feb. 15.—This vicinity has of late been visited by several incendiary fires, the last one occurring about 8 o'clock on the night of February 4th, in the burning of the well-appointed residence of Gen. Matt. W. Ramsey, ex-United States Senator, situated at his home plantation, about four miles distant from Jackson.

The stables contained a large number of horses and mules, which were fortunately saved, as the fire was discovered in time to get them out safely, but the buildings and all of their other contents were a total loss.

He engaged the services of the Richmond National Detective Agency, A. M. Brownell, general manager, and two of the operatives were sent here to investigate their arresting Tom Thomas, colored, and his son, Tom Thomas, Jr., Wednesday last, who had their preliminary hearing before Magistrate Moore on the same day, and they were both sent on to the Northampton County Criminal grand jury term of the Superior Court in March. The Ramseys have written Mr. Brownell a letter, highly complimenting the Agency for the reliable and skillful work done in this matter.

The New Shipyard.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NORFOLK, VA., Feb. 15.—The promoters of the great shipbuilding plant at Sewall's Point met here again to-day. Mr. C. W. Tebbutt said: "You may say that the meeting was harmonious and satisfactory, and that I say the building of the shipyard is assured."

Hundreds of students support themselves at the big universities in the United States by taking a few days' vacation, washing dishes, waiting on tables, doing clerical work, doing errands, doing laundry, clothing establishments, etc.

In and Around The Hotels.

Mrs. A. D. Atkinson, of the Lexington, has engaged the care of the head waiter and the baker of the burned Atlantic Hotel, at Norfolk. They went to work yesterday.

Judge George W. Morris, of the Corporation Court in Charlottesville, was at Murphy's yesterday.

An unusual number of citizens of Norfolk were registered at the various hotels yesterday. At Murphy's were those: Mr. W. N. Golt, Mr. S. J. Morrow, Mr. James B. Bower, Mr. E. P. Champlin, Mr. H. L. Key, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Morris and Mr. J. B. Wise.

Mr. James V. Treby, whose legal contest in this city some time ago for the clerkship of the Norfolk court attracted wide attention, was at Murphy's yesterday.

Messrs. J. L. and D. H. Pitts, members of the firm of Lane Bros. & Company, railroad contractors at Scottsville, were at the Lexington yesterday.

One of the well known Virginians registered at the New Ford's yesterday was Judge R. L. Kirby, of Independence.

At the New Ford's also was Mr. L. L. Bethel, of Crews, a hotel proprietor in that town.

Well known Virginians in the city yesterday included: Mr. J. L. Williams, of Blackstone; Mr. H. O. Lyman, of Somerset, and Messrs. M. C. Jennings and T. L. Jordan, of the New Ford's; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. White, of South Boston, at the Lexington, and Mr. Joseph W. Everett, of Keosauqua; Mr. H. L. Hibbard, Mr. H. Norton, and Messrs. J. C. Hunter, all of Newport News; Mr. William Patruick, of Staunton, and Mr. W. L. St. Clair, at Murphy's.

From Raleigh, N. C., Messrs. R. L. Rand and F. G. Bower were registered at the New Ford's.

Mr. A. R. Bradley and Mr. A. B. Snuggs, both of Sweetwater, Tenn., prominent business men there, were at Murphy's yesterday.

North Carolinians in the city yesterday were: Mr. Frank P. Gattling, of Tarboro, and Mr. D. Rogers, of Cambridge, at Murphy's; Mr. J. F. Stephens, of Greensboro, at the New Ford's, and Messrs. H. J. Blauvelt, J. J. Farris, and J. R. Paschal, at the Lexington.

NAT GOODWIN PLEASES.

Fine Audience Greeted the Great Comedian Yesterday.

Nat Goodwin can get on rapport with an audience quicker than any actor on the stage. He is undoubtedly the best comedian of his day, and he also has a gift for pathos that quickly reaches the heart. "An American Citizen" is probably the best thing he has ever done. It is certainly one of the most popular plays that he has ever presented. Perhaps this is due to the fact that he is so much loved in the play. There is something about Goodwin's personality that is peculiarly attractive to women. In this play every woman, except two, falls in love with him. These exceptions are Lady Bunn and the servant. One is already married and of course, the other does not dare to look so high.

It is that quality of attraction for the feminine that makes his career so successful so popular. There lies the cause of his personal popularity. His artistic success is due to his splendid technique and the modern realism and effective repose of his acting. Two admirers, however, greeted him and his beautiful and gifted wife at the Academy yesterday. Certain calls came in quite profusion, and the enjoyment of the audiences was evidenced by a plentitude of whole-hearted laughter. Maxine Elliott is beautiful beyond compare and an actress of temperance and decided gifts. Her acting is not only delightful, but artistic and finished.

The supporting company was good, but there was no one of unusual merit, except Master Willie Shedd, who was a capital Mervyn in "An American Citizen."

Cost in House News.

Postmaster Knight thinks the visit of the Chamber of Commerce committee to Washington in behalf of the new Federal building will result in much good, and feels sure that the chances for the appropriation are good. Mr. Knight was at the home yesterday morning, and said he thought the appropriation could be clinched by proper attention to the matter from this time on, and this he proposes to look after.

Associate Postmaster Grubbs is yet confined to his room on account of the injury to his leg sustained a few weeks ago.

Judge Waddill issued a discharge in bankruptcy yesterday morning to F. A. Sherman.

Mr. Richard A. Atkinson, of Wakefield, Sussex county, filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday morning in the clerk's office of the United States District Court. Mr. Atkinson was a merchant in Wakefield. His liabilities are given at $1,029.56; assets, none.

AN OPEN MEETING OF MACCABEES

The Local Y. M. C. A. Making
Arrangements for the State
Y. M. C. A. Convention.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

STANTON, VA., Feb. 15.—Apollo No. 5, Knights of Maccabees of the World, held an open meeting at the West Main Street Auditorium Wednesday night, which was largely attended by ladies and gentlemen. This is something new in the way of religious meetings in the neighborhood and great interest was shown and on Tuesday Band rendered several beautiful pieces, after which Mayor W. H. Landis delivered a welcoming address.

S. S. Foutz, State commander of the Order, delivered an address on the merits of the organization.

Miss Grace Foutz created much merriment by her graceful recitation of "Papa Rode the Goat."

Quite a hasty marriage took place at the Baskin Hotel, Staunton, Tuesday, when G. B. Slaven and Miss Sallie Gregg, of Durbin, Pocahontas county, Va., were united by the Rev. J. W. Carter.

James Dorn, of Staunton; Clancy Hill, Lucy Haley and Robert L. Booth, of Basco City, enlisted in the United States Artillery and on Tuesday were sent to Fort Hunt, Va., by Sergeant Daly.

J. W. Laird and Roger A. Young left Thursday morning on the 2 o'clock train for Baltimore, where they will stay on a two-weeks' pleasure trip.

The body of Arthur Wilson, who died in Marlinton, W. Va., on Monday, reached Staunton Wednesday and was conveyed to the home yesterday morning, and said he thought the appropriation could be clinched by proper attention to the matter from this time on, and this he proposes to
